PERA Implementation Date

- September 1, 2016 for most districts
- Race to the Top districts—date specified in grant
- Districts in lowest 20%--by September 1, 2015

FRANCZEKRADELET

How must districts assess student growth?

- Joint committee determines
- Must use one Type I or Type II assessment and at least one Type III assessment
- Identify Type I or Type II assessment to be used for each category of teacher (e.g., 2nd grade, high school social studies, physical education)
- If neither a Type I or Type II applies, then two Type III assessments must be used

Types of Assessments

- Type I—assessment that measures a certain group of students in the same manner with the same potential assessment items, is scored by a non-district entity, and is widely administered beyond IL (NWEA MAP, STAR reading/math, Scantron Performance Series)
- Type II—assessment developed/adopted/approved by the district and used on a district-wide basis that is given by all teachers in a given grade or subject area (collaboratively developed common assessments, textbook publisher tests)
- Type III—teacher created test

Best Practices -- Evaluation

Evaluations Serve Several Roles

- Improving teacher performance
- Recognizing good employees
- Demonstrating accountability to the larger community
- Providing evidence for employment decisions such as dismissal

Avoid Discrimination Charges

Even in 1st, 2nd or 3rd years, be prepared to justify decision — stating "not a good fit" or "not up to standards we expect for tenure" is not sufficient

Permissible Reasons for Dismissal 4th Year Probationary Teacher

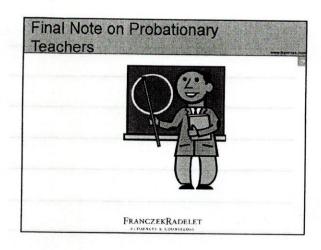

- Use the evaluation instrument as your guide
- Identify problems in one or more domains
- · Give specific example of deficiency, e.g.
 - Lack of positive instructional leadership
 - No evidence of differentiation in instruction
 - Lack of proper use of materials and techniques
 - Failure to work professionally and collegially with other staff

Discipline of Probationary teachers

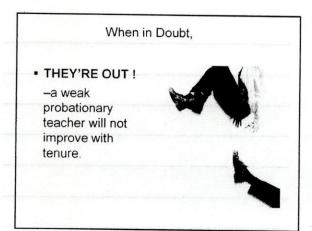

- Use letter of reprimand for conduct issues, violations of policy
- Notice to Remedy does not apply
- Serious conduct issues can result in midterm dismissal
- Letters of reprimand can justify nonrenewal

 - Irremediable conduct
 - Violation of a
 Notice to Remedy
 - Failure to satisfactorily complete a remediation plan

rremediable	Conduct
-------------	---------

- Sexual misconduct
- Physical abuse
- Illegal conduct
- Immediately alert district office
- Immediately institute leave with pay

Remedial Conduct

 Requires a Notice to Remedy: written warning to a tenured teacher from the Board of Education stating the specific conduct which if not corrected may result in termination

Notice to Remedy for Remedial Conduct

- Anger Management Issues
- Alcohol
- Profanity
- Attendance
- Inappropriate conduct with students that does not cause serious bodily harm or involve sexual activity
- Repeated insubordinate/unprofessional conduct that does not improve after a letter of reprimand

Just Cause

■ Case law: Cause is defined as "some substantial shortcoming which renders continuance of employment in some way detrimental to discipline and effectiveness of service, something which the law and sound public opinion recognize as good reason for the individual to no longer occupy his position." Chicago Board of Education v. Payne, 102 III. App. 3d 741, 747, 430 N.E.2d 310, 315 (1st Dist. 1981).

Letters of Reprimand

- A teacher is 5 minutes late to work and fails to call. This is the first time the teacher was late. What is the appropriate response?
- A teacher is 5 minutes late to work and does not call in late September. You speak to the teacher about it. It happens again right after Columbus Day. What is the appropriate response?
- A student reports that a teacher grabbed him by his lanyard and dragged him across the hallway. What is the appropriate response?

Key Features of Letters of Reprimand
